GATEWAY TO OUTDOOR ADVENTURE: BOY SCOUTING IN SAN MATEO COUNTY 1910-1940

From the ocean coast to the redwoods, Boy Scouts have enjoyed outdoor adventures in San Mateo County. Since its beginning in 1910, the Boy Scouts of America has taught leadership through mastering outdoor skills.

The exhibit features artifacts that demonstrate the skills required of scouts in the early days to earn various outdoor merit badges.

- View Boy Scout woodcraft tools
- Study pioneering models
- See historic photographs
- Watch early film footage
- Practice the art of knot tying
- Listen to old-time Scout music
- Share scouting memories on a talk-back board

Cost is Adults $4, Children and Seniors $2 and children under five years old are free. FREE ADMISSION on opening day for all uniformed Boy Scouts.
